Asked To Maintain Cemetery

Philip Tye, who recently completed a Boy Scout project by cleaning up Cedar Street Cemetery, wrote to Selectmen and asked that the small cemetery be kept up properly by the town. Tye included a map of unidentified tombstones dating back more than 100 years; the young man was commended for his efforts, which went toward his earning the status of Eagle Scout.

Selectmen agreed to ask Tree and Park Superintendent Peter Laugelle to maintain the cemetery.
